“ My heart is so sad for such a beautiful young woman. My beautiful step Granddaughter.

“ Amy was my best friend when we were little girls. We were joined at the hip for many years. She was always beautiful and sweet. Even at a young age, I knew she had a heart of gold. Amy and I lost contact a long time ago, but I think about her very often, and have looked for her many times. The news of her passing is shocking and hurts my heart. I always thought that we would magically find each other again one day and grow old together as best friends again. I don't even recall any parts of my childhood that do not include Amy. I have always loved Amy and have always held a special place in my heart for her that no one can ever touch. That will never change. She was the closest to anyone I have ever been in my entire life. She was the sister I never had. Please contact me at 214 226-6907 as I would like to attend her memorial service tomorrow. I have many great loving memories with her and would be honored to share them with her family.

Amy, I know that you are in your heavenly home now with your mother and grandparents. I can never express how truly blessed I am because of you and your family. Because of you, I know Christ. There is nothing in this world more important, and you gave that to me. You and your family provided a place of solace where you and I could just be kids playing in the fort or the doll house. I wish that I could have known you as an adult. I wish that our paths had crossed. I wish that someone would have connected us a month ago, instead of days ago, before it was too late. I will never seek closure. Your presence will always be alive in my heart and mind. I will always carry your memory and love with me.

I love you.

“ My heart goes out to all that loved Amy! I loved her too. I loved her from the first day I met her. She had a big smile a good heart and she didn't mind telling how she felt about you. The world lost a good hearted person, but Heaven gained an Angel! Rest In Peace our Amy! I was so honored to have known you and loved you!!
