

Deborah Jaye Huber

August 3, 1955 - December 7, 2018

* Deborah Jaye Huber, age 63, from Denton, Tx, passed away on Friday, December 7th. Deborah was known as Debbie by all who knew and loved her.

Debbie was born on August 3rd, 1955 to Eddie and Mary Gilmer.

Debbie graduated from Denton High School, then went on to receive her Bachelors of Science degree from North Texas State University, in the field of Elementary Education.

Debbie's true passion was working alongside her father, brother, brother-in-law, and later her son, at the family business, the "G and G Tractor Company" on Ft. Worth Dr. in Denton. Debbie was known for her friendliness to all, her efficiency and ability to quickly find parts for customers (memorizing the part numbers of hundreds of parts), and her gift of making every customer feel like part of the family.

Debbie is survived by her son, Matthew Huber, whom she loved dearly, Sharon Fleming, whom Debbie proudly claimed was her older sister, Laurie Vinson her younger sister, and David Gilmer her younger brother. Debbie has 8 nieces and nephews whom she loved to spoil with gifts and fun times. Debbie adored her three dogs who she referred to as "the girls".

Debbie's vivacious personality and generosity to all will be remembered fondly by all who knew her.

Comments

“ I was so saddened to hear about Debbie. I didn't even know she was ill. We were very good friends on North Lake Tr. Had a lot of fun and laughs. Matt and my son were best friends. My thoughts and prayers are with Matt and his family.

Connie Norman-Watkins

Connie Watkins - December 11, 2018 at 12:55 PM

“ To Matt - so many fun times together with you and your mom...ping pong, swimming, trampoline, thanksgiving dinner, Janelle's wedding etc... Loved her like my sister and will miss her so much. Love to you and your family. Susy and Jerry

Bonnie Strickland - December 09, 2018 at 10:18 PM