“ Ruth Ann, Gerald and families,

You both are so blessed to have been raised by a Godly mother. She has left her family a priceless inheritance---a perfect roadmap to eternal life; how to live and who to live for.

Evelyn loved Jesus and her life was a model for everyone who met her. She was tenacious in studying the Bible, praying for anyone in need and telling strangers about Jesus, Her tenacity was just as strong in being faithful through consistent church attendance. She knew most of the words to hymns in the hymnal and she had memorized more of the Bible than not. All severed her well as she began losing her eye sight.

She stood strong for living for Jesus and consistently uplifted her family in prayers. She stood up, against anything that appeared to contradict her religious beliefs, but she loved unconditionally. Her faith remained strong and so did her love for family and friends.

I was Evelyn's Sunday school teacher, at Southmont Baptist Church, for about seven years, but Evelyn taught me. She was and always will be one of my life's largest blessings, and I believe I can say the same for her Sunday school class mates and every church member that knew her as well as friends that she had at Dogwood Estates and The Vintage,

With prayer that God's blessings, that Evelyn knew, be on each of you,
Love,
