“ I grew up with Jeremy he was my best friend for a time during our youth. We used to ride dirt bikes all over our rural community in Texas as rebellious teenagers. I've lost touch with him over the years, but we still managed to sparsely keep in contact as time permitted with a long phone call, or meet up & hang out with him & Jen for days at a time. Jeremy truly was the most loyal, & committed brother, cousin, friend, and he loved his Jenn very much. They traveled all over the states together in his job as a truck driver. His loyalty even spilled over into the company that he worked with. After about 15 months of no contact I figured something was up, so I'm only just now finding out the news 15 months after his passing. To his family, friends, & co-workers I say that I'm very sorry for your loss. I'm at a total loss here. Totally taken by surprise by this news. We will all see him again one day I'm sure of. He had the kindest soul God ever gave a man.

“ I never had the pleasure of meeting Jeremy, but I know he made Jen so happy. I'm sad to hear of his passing but he will be missed.
