“ Leroy and I had the honor of seeing some of his artwork, he was a talented artist. He also served as an usher at the 5:00pm Sat. Mass, which we attended at ST. Joseph Church. Leroy was also in the Knights of Columbus with Phil. Many fond memories

“ I was lucky enough to invite my newly found Uncle Phillip to my wedding almost 20 years ago. He truly was a gentle giant and always stayed in touch and remembered birthdays of his newly found family. He also sent special messages on our wedding anniversary. We truly cherish the time we spent getting to know him. Rest in peace Uncle Phil. Love always Tracey
