“

Reciban nuestras condolencias.

Sabemos que el perder a un ser querido en la muerte es muy doloroso por eso queremos compartir unas palabras de consuelo.

Por ejemplo Dios nos promete que muy pronto eliminará para siempre las enfermedades, en Isaías 33:24 dice que llegara el día en que nadie dirá "Estoy enfermo".

Nos promete que eliminará la muerte, en Revelación o Apocalipsis 21:4 dice que "Dios limpiara toda lágrima de los ojos y la muerte no será más".

Pero también nos dice Jehova Dios que tiene el deseo de devolverles la vida a nuestros seres queridos que han muerto porque en Hechos 24:15 dice que "va ha haber una resurrección".

Cuando se cumplan estas palabras volveremos a gozar de esta tierra pero en perfectas condiciones porque ya no existirá tampoco el odio, la muerte también causada por él hambre, el delito y tampoco las guerras.

“ Joe was always quick with his winning smile, a funny story to share, and ready to find out what the 'kids' were up to as I was growing up in a liquor business family. He worked with my step-dad, Ralph Townes, and he always went out of his way to be sweet to me. He will be missed. I share this poem by Elizabeth Frye (c.1932) as I hope it will ease the pain of his loss for all:

Do not stand at my grave and weep
I am not there. I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow.
I am the diamond glints on snow.
I am the sunlight on ripened grain.
I am the gentle autumn rain.
When you awaken in the morning's hush
I am the swift uplifting rush
Of quiet birds in circled flight.
I am the soft stars that shine at night.
Do not stand at my grave and cry;
I am not there. I did not die.

“ I want you to know that Joe was much much more than a friend, he was a very important part of our family in Arizona. To my wife and I, my two daughters, and the very close nit neighbors that I know share my same thoughts and prayers. As well as many business and social friends. He will be missed in Arizona as much as Texas, New Mexico, and don't forget his good friends in Idaho. I am sure there are others because if you new Joe, you loved him. I won't say good-by I will say until we meet again "Love you BUD"
