“ I'm Nick's nephew Ashton Martinez son of Tiffany Thrasher
I may not have known Nick as well as a lot of people but when he died I saw first hand how the death of a loved one can effect someone's life.If I'm being honest I wish i died instead of Nick 100% of the time I just wish we could've spent more time together more then anything.

“ I read on-line of Nick's passing. My sincere sympathies. May the love of family and friends comfort you in your grief.
In the bottom of an old pond lived some grubs who could not understand why none of their groups ever came back after crawling up the stems of the lilies to the top of the water. They promised each other that the next one who was called to make the upward climb would return to tell what happened to him. Soon one of them felt an urgent impulse to seek the surface; he rested himself on the top of a lily pad and went through a glorious transformation which made him a dragonfly with beautiful wings. In vain he tried to keep his promise flying back and forth over the pond. He peered down at his friends below. Then he realized that even if they could see him they would not recognize such a radiant creature as one of their number.
The fact that we cannot see our loved ones or communicate with them after the transformation, which we call death, is no proof that they cease to exist. -Walter Dudley Cavert (used with permission)

“ Our condolences to your family, may God wrap his arms around you during this time. Nick was in our daughters class at DHS, he was a fine young man. Always spoke to us and had a smile on his face. I know his loss leaves an empty space in your hearts, may you find comfort in your memories.

“ Dear Thrasher family,

I am so very sorry for the loss of Nicholas. I have so many wonderful memories of Kristina, Tiffany, Nicholas and I as young children growing up. You are family to us and Nick was like a brother to me. My heart breaks for each of you in this time of sorrow. Though it has been many years since I have connected with Nicholas it looks as though he was in a very good place and loved dearly by all who knew him. May he rest in peace and may you all find peace and healing during this difficult time.

Sending love and peace to you all,
Julie Bevill and family
