“ I am his daughter but he left when I was young. 3 of us kids made several attempts maintain a relationship with him- but we never succeeded. He has 3 other children from 2 other past marriages whom he never kept in contact with either or provided any emotional or child support. So I am happy he made someone happy in this lifetime. Maybe after his passing he can finally see the damaged he has done. Rest in Peace.

“ The best neighbour we had. His stories about country music, cars, and the American life were very informative for my son and me. RB was always willing to lend a helping hand. He would stop by and help me with the maintenance of a really old Oldsmobile Delta. Once sitting and chatting on the porch, watching planes I said: “I would like to have a pilot licence one day.” RB responded: “Oh, it’s so easy. It’s like driving a car.” I remember this comment, every time I see jets. Neil Diamond disk, which he gave me as a farewell gift, will always remind me of him. May he rest in peace.

“ A wonderful friend and neighbor. I will always remember the stories he shared with me while sitting on my front porch. The coffee mug he gave me of his favorite ship the S.S. Milwaukee Clipper will continue to remind me of his friendship and generosity. Thanks for always looking out for me and keeping a watchful eye on my home. You will be missed and always remembered.

“ Many years ago, Phil provided a fatherly influence in the life of my daughter, who stayed at his home as much as she did at mine. For that I will be eternally grateful. He will be missed.

“ My condolences to the Simon family in this difficult time. Be encouraged by this very special scripture at Revelation 21:3-5 With that I heard a loud voice from the throne say: “Look! The tent of God is with mankind, and he will reside with them, and they will be his people. And God himself will be with them. And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.” And the One seated on the throne said: “Look! I am making all things new.” Also he says: “Write, for these words are faithful* and true.”
