“ OMG, I was trying find Al's phone number again to give him a call and goggle pulled this up. We were childhood through college and beyond best friends until All moved away. I shed a tear. So very sad. We are all growing old. I still remember the good days when we built tree forts and played kick the can..... RIP my friend.

“ It's hard to believe you left us so soon, and that I didn't get a chance to come down and see you. But I am thankful for the few times we were able to get together. In high school, I took a trip down with Jessica and can honestly say that whole trip is filled with memories of you. From you singing Gwen Stefani's "bananas" In the car, to you grilling out burgers by the pool, the many Mexican restaurants we ate at, or even taking a bunch of teenage girls shopping, you were a fabulous Uncle. You were loved by many, and you will be missed by many. Till we meet again.

Your Niece,
Ashley Shaver.

Best brother, more like my father, every day I think of you and smile. Hasn't set in yet that you're not a text away. The bible says all families will be together in heaven, till we meet again. Love you dearly! Will miss you each day. Wic gail lee shibley.

Al just popped into my head today. We worked together at CD Hartnett and everyday he brought joy to our workplace. Though he's been gone quite awhile I still think of him often. I miss him. Our random trips to Starbucks. Our conversations about our lives, family, and friends. He was gone too soon and he will always be in my heart.
