

Anna Marie Judd

August 3, 1920 - April 19, 2017

Anna Marie Weese Judd, 96, passed away April 19, 2017. Ann was born August 3, 1920 in White Sulphur Springs, WV. She was the oldest of 11 children born to Daisy Church Weese and Walter Brown Weese. She was predeceased by her husband, Frank Judd, Jr., her parents, one sister and five brothers. She is survived by a daughter, Saralyn Judd Pinson (Joe) of Denton, TX and a son John F. Judd III (Linda) of Brownsburg, IN. Also surviving are three sisters, Doris Wilson of Falls Church, VA., Daisy Crenwelge of Mechanicsburg, VA. and Barbara Jean Baker of Falls Church, VA as well as one brother, Elgee Weese of St. George, UT., three grandchildren, seven great grandchildren and many cousins, nieces and nephews.

Ann spent most of her life working years in retail sales and catering in the Washington, D.C./ Northern VA area. At retirement, she and Frank moved to Engelwood on the west coast of Fl.. After Frank passed away she moved to Denton and resided at Good Samaritan Village. She was a member of First United Methodist Church, Bungalow class, United Methodist Women, Garden Culture Club. Ann and Frank were always welcoming family into their home, many times providing living accommodations as they worked in the D.C. metro area. Their home was always a gathering place and center of family celebration at holidays and other times and provided many wonderful memories,

No service is planned. A private family graveside service will be held in Hagerstown, MD at a future date.

Tribute Wall

“ Sara, so sorry for your loss. You and your family are in my thoughts and prayers. ”

Adele Petty - April 26, 2017 at 06:24 AM