“ It seems like only a few years ago that our parents were strong and healthy and all us kids were running around without a care in the world. As we all grew up and went our way, the "Cousin's Reunions" gave us a special time to spent together and enjoy all the good family recipes and the "music time". Can't remember for sure, but I think your dad played the fiddle, my dad would play the guitar, my mom would play the keyboard and other "cousins" joined in with their instruments and voices. I think my mom was the last "cousin" to pass away. Now they are all together in heaven making wonderful music as they praise the Lord. Lots of good times and lots of good memories. Cecil is now enjoying their music again and one day our families will be together for eternity where there is no separation, pain or sorrow. Sorry for your loss and praying God will give you peace and comfort during this time.
