

Dr. Chittaranjan Debata

May 30, 1960 - February 21, 2014

Dr. Chittaranjan Debata, MBBS, passed away on Saturday, February 22, 2014.

Chittaranjan was born May 30, 1960 in Orissa, India, where he completed his education and received his medical degree. In 1995, he married Sujata Gupta Debata and emigrated to the United States. He worked as a researcher at the Louisiana State Health Sciences Center.

Visitation was held at 3:00 pm, on Monday, February 24, 2014. He will be cremated according to his wishes. Services will be held this Sunday, March 2, 2014 at 9:00 AM, at the DFW Hindu Temple, 1605 N. Britian Road, Irving, Texas.

Preceded in death by his father, Gokulanand; Chittaranjan is survived by his wife, Sujata; his mother, Girija; his two brothers and sisters-in-law, and his nephews and nieces. He will be greatly missed by all who knew and loved him.

Tribute Wall

SM

“ Chittaranjan Debata known as Ranjan in the family was my uncle from maternal side and was one year elder to me. During summer and winter holidays I was visiting his place as a child and spending time with Ranjan Mamu, that's how I was calling him. He was always a good student and ambitious in life. His father Gokul Debata a School Sub-Inspector was his guide. Coming from a small village, Ranjan Mamu could achieve a lot with the help of his determination. Never forgot his big family.

Ranjan Mamu will always stay in our hearts.

Santosh Mishra

santosh@phxun.ru

Santosh Mishra - January 29, 2016 at 02:24 AM