“ I always loved Colette from the moment we met! She was so kind, and always supportive of me. She cheered me on when good things happened in my life. I will never forget her smile, and the love she had for her family. She was my dearest, closest and best friend and always will be. I am so thankful for the friendship we shared!

“ We had an amazing sister who was loved so much. A heart that was only filled with love and kindness of others. Colette wasn't just my sister she was my best friend, I will always love and miss her terrible and the memories are always in my heart. Let her wings spread the Love and Kindness to others now as she is Gods special Angel of Kindness. Love you Colette until we meet again.
