“ My favorite male cousin. So many wonderful moments while we were growing up. Those contests as to who could eat a green rhubarb stalk without frowning and many other wonderful antics! Last, but not least, his willingness to fly with Betty from Slidell, LA to Alexandria, VA and walk me down the aisle to marry my loving and wonderful husband on March 23, 1996. Our latest "adventure" centered around his USAF caper with that C-130 Heurcules aircraft 's prop that refused to turn over, resulting in his racing up and down the main runway at {now Reagan} Natiional Airport, Washington, DC, between commercial flights, during the late '50s, and culminating in a call to my desk at Capital Airlines and an overnight visit to await a spare part to be flown in. But his best yet is that he has now touched the face of God ("High Flight").

“ My most cherished memory of my Uncle Delton was of him teaching me as a wee little girl how to rub noses the way the estamos did & how important my brother & I as kids would feel receiving our own birthday cards in the mail especially from Uncle Delton & Aunt Betty validating us with coins taped inside from whatever country
