

Mr. Dennis Craig Terwilliger Jr.

March 5, 1968 - October 30, 2013

Dennis Craig Terwilliger, Jr. age 45, Denton business owner and resident of Copper Canyon, Tx died suddenly at his home on Wednesday, October 30, 2013.

Born March 5, 2013 in Cornwall, NY, Dennis graduated from JM Bennet High School in Salisbury, MD and from the University of North Texas in Denton. For many years he participated in the Texas Water Safari; a 4 day, 250 mile canoe race. In 2005, he finished 15th Overall and 2nd in his class. Dennis will be remembered best for his infectious smile, booming laugh and generous heart. He loved life, singing with his father and sailing and paddling with his friends. He is survived by his wife, Jessica McReynolds; son, Glynne "Bubba" McReynolds; daughter, Matisse "Tissy" Guest; parents, Dennis Craig Terwilliger, Sr. and Carloyn and Steve Laffey. He also leaves many other family members and friends, including Sadie Brown Dog.

The family is having a Celebration of Life at Dennis' home, 713 Chinn Chapel Road, Copper Canyon, TX 75077 on Wednesday, November 6, 2013 at 4:00 PM.

Arrangements are under the direction of Denton Funeral Home.

Tribute Wall

BW

“ Hello. I was saddened to read of Dennis passing; I taught him biology at James M. Bennett High School. Dennis was one of those students who made teaching a daily joy. His beautiful sense of humor is still fresh in my mind. I feel the pain of your loss and wish all of you peace and happiness. -Bob Webster

Bob Webster - November 06, 2013 at 08:21 AM