

James L Young Jr

August 9, 1936 - November 23, 2014

James L. Young Jr., 78, of Denton, Texas passed away on November 23, 2014. A visitation will be held for James on Tuesday, November 25, 2014 at Denton Funeral Home from 6:00-8:00 p.m. A 1:00 p.m. graveside service will be held on Wednesday, November 26, 2014 at Sycamore Cemetery in Wise County, Texas. He is survived by his wife of 54 years, Barbara Pullen Young; son, James Trent Young (Carla); two grandchildren, Austin Young and Amanda Lidster (Paul); sister, Nora Faye Cain(Johnny); uncle, Alan Ray Young (Nelda); brother in law, Kenneth Caraway; as well as several nieces and nephews. James is preceded in death by his parents, James Lawrence Young Sr. and Irene Cogburn Young; and his sister, Minnie Caraway. Arrangements are under the direction of Denton Funeral Home & Cremation Services.

Previous Events

Visitation

NOV 25. 6:00 PM - 8:00 PM (CT)

Denton Funeral Home/Mulkey-Bowles-Montgomery Funeral Home

705 N. Locust

Denton, TX 76201

(940) 382-6622

office@mulkeybowlesmontgomery.com

<http://www.mulkeybowlesmontgomery.com>

Tribute Wall

PH

“ *He was funny and fun. I remember smiling many times at his jokes and his antics.
I am sad to hear of his passing.
A classmate,
Patsy Hilton*

Patsy Hilton - November 28, 2014 at 03:23 AM

Thank you for taking time to sharing that. We all agree, he made us all laugh every day!

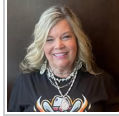

Carla Young - November 29, 2014 at 09:34 AM

“ Dear Barbara, Trent, Carla, & Children, If the sky were paper and he ocean were ink, I couldn't write enough words to tell you how sad I was to learn of James' untimely death. I am so sorry that I haven't kept up with all of you from the Credit Union like I intended to do; however, with trying to keep up with seven grandchildren, and all their games (I once had 13 games in 4 different towns, and i made it to eleven in all of the towns) , it doesn't leave me much time for visiting those I love. Anyway, I didn't even know he was sick. Now, plz don't let your grief crowd out your "Precious Memories" from your hearts! And did you know that you have to "get a grip" on you grief, before James can RIP! I didn't realize this, until my pastor, Monsignor King, pointed it out to me, after Mother died! I don't know if you know that I'm in a wheelchair, now, so I won't get to come to the service, but I'll be there in spirit! I love you , all , good! Sincerely, Judy Cain Hartman (this may be a duplicate, as I lost the first one.)

Judith G-Ma Hartman - November 26, 2014 at 10:32 AM

That was a very sweet. Thank you for the advice. No, none of us knew that you are in a wheelchair. Sounds like the grandkids are keeping you busy! Trent keeps up with your kids through Gene at the barber shop. James has been sick for a several years with congestive heart failure, and diabetes, and lost both of his legs, however, after he got his scooter he was always on the move. You would never hear him complain. He always had a positive attitude and thought everything was "the best". The best "coffee", the best "hot dog", etc... We are heartbroken, but we know we will see him again.

Carla Young - November 29, 2014 at 09:50 AM

BS

To Barbara & Brent Young family: James and I were best of friends four years in high school and one year of college at DBC. We called it Dumb Butt College only because they could not help us. (The Dumb Butts) James and I were the clowns for whoever needed us; pep rallies on the cheer leader's bus, to ball games, etc. We got out of lots of classes to go clean the buses, ha, they still needed cleaning when we finished. We specialized in ping pong in college. Everyone called James (Biggun). Some name for the smallest guy in class, huh, he was about 5' and weighed maybe 80 pounds max. We have missed James & Barbara at the last 2 class reunions. He was always a favorite. I came last year to your house, Brent (I could tell you loved your Dad by making a place for them) and visited and we shared some old times. It was good to see him. I am sorry for your loss. May the Lord give you comfort and peace.

Bud Starnes 12/2/14

Bud Starnes - December 02, 2014 at 08:03 PM