“ I am so sorry for the loss of Jeannette,I met her as a child at church and she was my sunday school teacher at one point.I remember when our church went on a ski trip and she went as a chaparon,poor Jeannette kept sitting all the way down on the ski lift pole, which you were just suppose to hold between your legs and let it pull you up hill,but she kept sittting down on it and falling down,it was very funny(since she didn't get hurt)We had a great time!! I enjoyed her company,quite a few years later when I worked with her at Fema until she retired in 2011.She is a great woman and will be missed!!!!
