“ My lawn has been the envy of my neighbors for the last 10 years because of Mr. Loyola. "How does he do it? they would ask; and "What does he use?" were frequent questions. In the coldest winter months and the hottest summer days, my lawn was green, healthy, and perfectly manicured. An extraordinary entrepreneur, and extremely hard worker, I saw his business grow from one lawnmower and one pickup truck to several mowers and additional tools eventually requiring a trailer to haul it all around. He kept my homestead looking sharp all year long and I will forever be grateful to him for his services.

He was a man of great faith and I know that today he sits at the right hand of his father in peace, harmony, and perfect health.

En paz descanse señor Loyola.
