“ Today's 5 years Mom. I miss you every day. I think of your beautiful laugh & smile. I just wish I could've had more time with you, but I'm so thankful for the time that I did have. I love you so much. And people lie - each year does NOT get easier, it just gets more normal.

“ Hey Mom. Just going through some of your pictures over the weekend that Dad gave me and found these. Thought you would like to see them. It's coming up on 5 years of Michael's service, so I'll send you a gift that a good friend sent to us. I love you very much and I miss you. Please hug Michael. If you see Gerald & Beverly, hug them too for me. I love you.

“ Look Mom, I'm growing my hair out like you wanted me too. Me and Beak are still the best of friends and her and Dennis are taking good care of me. You would've been really proud of Dad a few months back when I was pretty sick. He took really good care of me. Because of how great he was with you, I had zero worries (even if the was a scare of my health). I miss you terribly and I love you so much. Every day you are on my mind from the time I wake until I can sleep. Please hug Michael for me and give him a kiss and tell him I'm sorry that I haven't seen him in a while. I miss him allot too. I wish I still had his message on my VM. I love you Mom.

“ February 2017

My beloved Judith Ann, how much I love and miss you. So much. You have been with our God for one year. Your physical presence is no longer with me and our family. However, I am wrong. When I am with our Children, Grand Children, and Great Grand Children I see my Judith Ann in them. Then I realize that you are still here with us, because you are alive in all of our Heart's. Thank you God for sharing me these small pieces my Judy to keep with me until my end of days, until I join her in your Heaven. Judy, your DNA is throughout our family, and that DNA will go on forever. You will be, and you are, eternal.

The pain of your passing is with me and will just not pass. From my heart and mind. I pray that it never leaves me even though I know my pain from not having you with me causes me to make errors, unforeseen. God has let me be aware of just how much I really loved my Judith Ann while she was with me, and continues to my end.

I could go on and write down many of the odd things that have happened to me since you passed, and of the visions that I have had, and the dreams which I have almost nightly, the daily remembrances of you and our family. I love you my Beautiful Ann. One thing I am thankful for is that you are no longer suffering. The way I knew you were.

“ So I'm just gonna pretend that mom is in a computerized for of heaven and that this is how I talk to her.

Hi Mom. I love you and miss you. With is going really well. I'm still learning the industry. I actually learn something new everyday. My Patrick is doing good. He's a little sore with his bad leg and this damp weather. He sleeps on your pillow when I'm not using it. Your great grand babies have been over quite a bit since you were laid to rest. They are so very sweet. Brooklyn helped me with your flowers from when you went to "forever sleep". And William helps me tends to the plants that came from Martha's basket, it it may have bedn Sandy and April's basket. I'm not sure. But William loves them! Cassie and her boyfriend are getting their own place together. She's doing pretty good, getting her stuff together so that she has a rewarding future with Justin. David is getting taller and more handsome every day. He's the perfect blend of Nelson and Herlihy. Love him. Dennis Dee is doing good. He had his ups and downs with Christina, but they're young and still trying to figure things out. One thing we know for sure is that they were put on this earth to give us those beautiful babies! Mom, you would be very proud of Dad. He has been so kind and caring to all of us. When we go over there, he feeds us gourmet chef created meals! Not just "foo-ood" but huge meals! Hopefully he and I will get a place together in the Sherman area. Brittany will be going to the Sherman area too with her babies. We all miss you so much Mom. I love you and I'll talk to you later.

“ I miss my Judy, who was my friend and roommate in Dallas, when we were teenagers; then you met and married my brother, Myron Nelson, after we all piled into cars...Destination, Treasure Island, for Myron Nelson, but living quarters in Sunnyvale, California for the 4 of us. Judy, you were my sister-in-law; my best friend and My Sister. This world is meaningless to me, if you are not in it. I always loved you, AND I always will!

We surely had some funny, and crazy times living together in Dallas. We were together in Kalamazoo, Michigan; Dallas, Texas; Rockford, Illinois....and many moves in between. We always laughed constantly, whenever we got together, or visiting by phone more recently. Myron would say, "Now, Martha, don't you make my bride laugh!".....then he would put you on the phone.

You loved my brother for 49 years, and you showed him that love every day. Since he is a "Nelson" like me, I know how hard that was for you, to constantly give your unconditional love....always forgiving....always putting him first. He really came through for you these past years, didn't he? When we visited you in October, we could see how much he loved you as he did everything for you, and had been for many years. Even with life's challenges, your's and Myron's story was the true "Love Story."

I love you, my little Judy,
Martha

“ My mommy. My mama. My everything. The sweetest, most neutral woman I every knew. She taught me to fight, pick my battles, how to be humble, sophistication, work ethics, femininity, the birds and the bees, fear, strength, hope, unity, family LIFE. MY MOMMY. Your last breath is what I will always treasure.
