“ Keegan is my nephew. I loved him and enjoyed the rare times I was able to be with him. When he was a little boy about 3 years old he used to say "Me no high up" meaning he wasn't tall enough to reach what he wanted on the kitchen counter. I took him and his sister the the Disney movie "Aladin" when they were small children. Keegan laughed so hard and so lively and would mimic the characters after they said something funny. Three weeks before he died the LORD put him on my mind and I was concerned something was wrong. I hadn't see him in over ten years but I tried to contact him but was unsuccessful. I told my wife I was concerned for him and I prayed for him.
