“ Kerry Neal James, 57, journeyed from this life to eternal life November 22, 2018. He was born in Denton, TX on September 25, 1961 beloved son of Ruben Enoch James and Lillie Pauline (Richardson) James.

Kerry grew up and resided in Denton, TX; graduating from Denton High School in the year 1980. Kerry became a skilled equipment assembly tech and machinist employed by Andrew Corp., Turbo Refrigeration Co., and with Victor Equipment and Technologies Co. for 20 yrs; he then pursued his longing desire to travel the U.S. by becoming a long-haul truck driver for CRST Trucking Co. until personal injuries compelled him to retire. Kerry never met a stranger, he was a true, blue fan of his family, friends, neighbors and co-workers; gladly offering a listening ear, friendly smile and an entertaining sense of humor to help lighten their load. With great joy he was a loving father to the light of his eyes, his daughter. He was an avid fan of NASCAR Races and the Dallas Cowboys. God's Beloved son, Kerry, inherited a most pleasant disposition created lasting impressions upon others. We shall always hold him near and dear to our hearts.

Kerry is survived by his daughter, Alisha Stone James of Chandler, AZ; parents Ruben and Pauline; siblings Teresa James Zahm, Steven James and David James; niece, Molli James; nephews, Ricky Guditis (Berta), Jeremi Guditis (AnnByron) and Zachary James; 4 great nephews and 2 great; nieces; 2 aunts and 1 uncle; numerous cousins, most still residing in Denton, County; extended family, Sergio McLaurin, Danielle McLaurin.

Preceded in death by grandparents Virgil Carl James and wife, Mae Viola (Massey) James; Mamie Florene (Anderson) Coffey and husband Rufus Tom Coffey; Arthur Davis Richardson and wife, Francis (Chunn) Richardson; 7 uncles and 2 aunts.
