“ I went to school with Lisa at LC. Another classmate and I were looking through yearbooks and reading her comments and prompted us to look her up as we heard recently she had passed away. I just wanted to share what a sweet friendship and memories I have of going to her house and our friendship. We played tennis together...she taught me everything I know. Time goes by and remembering those wonderful people that we intertwined with and sharing that with her loved ones is important. She is remembered as a sweet friend and many fun times together. She was a gentle spirit and loved reading about her writing and career experiences. Blessings to the family.

“ So sorry to hear about Lisa. We knew her back in Iowa with her writing talents. Leonard and Lisa stayed friends for many years. He was worrying why he hadn't heard from her for awhile. All our best, Kathy and Leonard Winograd
