“ Michael was a wonderful man and an even better father! Our earthly fathers are supposed to represent our Heavenly Father and Michael did just that! He was a friend to all and had an awesome, contagious laugh! He would give anyone the shirt off of his back without even being asked. He was never angry. Never held grudges. Hated no one. Rarely ever mad at any one. So much like God made us to be. So much I have to work at...but seemed to come naturally to him. He loved sports but we all knew the Dallas Cowboys and Texas Rangers were his favorite! Loved music, especially older country. Loved the outdoors. Loved hunting and fishing. He had a heart bigger than the universe and filled it full with his daughters, family and friends but 1st and foremost his heart belonged to the Lord! If Michael met you for a second he considered you a friend! He had a smile and a hug for everyone.

*Michael, you are already missed more than words can describe!
You were loved and will be remembered by many!*

We love you! Rest easy!
