“ Grandmother, I'm going to remember and miss our talks that we had about life, our family and of course you always had talk about me and ask how I was doing. You always kept me grounded and in check when I started to get wild and out of control by just say " Larry cool it !!" I hope I can be the father that you taught me to be for Dalton. I love you very much and miss you so much right now sitting here in Afghanistan. I love you !!
