February 18, 1930 - November 2, 2015

Pauline Patrick Tipps passed into her eternal reward on November 2, 2015. She was born in Wilson, Oklahoma on February 18, 1930 to Everett and Alice Patrick. She was one of six children. Her fondest childhood memories were of life on “the farm”. She moved to Denton with her brother R.C. Patrick in 1948. She was married to James Weldon Tipps on December 18, 1949. She was a mother and homemaker most of her life and a devout follower of Christ.

Her children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren, family and friends knew her as a faithful, patient, loving mother, grandmother, sister, and friend. She always sought the best in people and she possessed an incredibly gentle spirit. She lived her faith as she taught Sunday School to multiple generations of children at the First Church of the Nazarene in Denton. The fruits of her service are evident in the many lives that she influenced.

“ Dear Linda & Family - I am so very sorry to read of your sweet Mom's passing. I am hoping this is Linda Tipps who I grew up attending Jefferson Davis & we were also friends with Jo Evelyn Hood, Virginia McClung & Pam Housden in the Woodrow & Mulkey Lane area of Denton. Your Mom was always such a caring person and made sure when you invited me over we had plenty of fun & food. I would love to hear back from you. I do stay in contact with Jo & Virginia. Funny after all these years I work at the City Of Denton Service off Mingo & Ruddell - drive right by our old school & reflect. Give a call or txt 940-367-5444 or shoot me an email hawkinslimousin@aol.com please. Hugs & Prayers to all.
