

Mr. Raymond Frank Sanino, II

September 23, 1959 - March 17, 2016

Raymond Frank Sanino II, 56, born on September 23, 1959, was surrounded by family as he went to be with our Heavenly Father on March 17, 2016, in his home in Denton, Texas. After graduating from Penn State University, Raymond pursued a lifelong career in the aviation industry by serving in the US Air Force for 16 years as a Captain. He served as a fighter pilot during Desert Storm. After serving in the military, he continued his dream career of flying of instructing others, with the same passion, to fly as well. We like to imagine he is instructing others in heaven to use their wings to fly. Raymond is survived by his wife, Anita Carol Sanino, daughter and son-in-law, Anita Jane and Mike Brown, siblings, nieces, nephews, great-nephews and his best friend, Sam. Raymond was known by his loved ones and friends as Ray and Pappa Ray. He was always one to put a smile on everyone's face with his witty and contagious personality. He touched many people's lives, including his family, friends, coworkers, and students. He enjoyed traveling, flying, playing golf, and much more. We would like to personally thank all the medical staff at Texas Health Presbyterian Hospital and Liberty Dialysis for all they did to provide and prolong the best quality of life possible. Thank you Heart to Heart Hospice; special thanks to Kacey, Myra, Ike, Karen, and Tasha for their knowledge, comfort, and support during Raymond's final days. Services to be held at DFW National Cemetery on April 18, 2016, at 11:15 AM, Lane B. Interment to follow. Arrangements under the direction of Denton Funeral Home. Online condolences may be left for the Family at www.dentonfuneralho me.net

Tribute Wall

JE

“ If anyone knows how to get in touch with his daughter Nikki / Nicole, I'd love to connect with her. We were next door neighbors as children in the 90's in Texas. She moved away suddenly, and we never got to say goodbye. She'd probably be in her early 40s now.

Jennifer - March 26 at 12:06 PM

AN

“ My dearest Raymond, I can't begin to tell you how badly I miss you and love you deeply. I pray your happy where ever you are.

There's not a day that goes that I feel your presence. The days are long, I can't sleep, at times I think I see you. I'm thinking just one more kiss, one more hug.

I'm so sorry you suffered so much! I know your in Gods care, for he has given you peace and tranquility. Keep coming by so I know your ok.

With all my love for you,

Choc-chip 🥺

Anita - May 25, 2016 at 06:40 PM

AS

Happy Birthday my love!!
I miss you terribly!!
I love you mi amor!

Anita Sanino - September 24, 2018 at 02:58 AM

AS

*Happy 5th heavenly birthday!
Everyday that goes by, I think of you, and all the plans we had made to travel!!
I love and miss you baby!*

Choc-chip

Anita Sanino - March 17, 2021 at 06:56 AM

MB

*I went to grade school and high school with Ray in Pittsburgh, and only just came across this obituary today when looking for him for his 45th Reunion. I'm sorry to hear of your loss.
Mark Becker (oceanridger@gmail.com)*

Mark Becker - March 16, 2022 at 11:38 PM

LJ

“To the family and friends of Raymond Sanino, I would like to express my deepest and heartfelt condolences to you. I am truly sorry for the lost that your family is feeling. When ever we loss such a loving and caring person, it is the hardest thing that any of us can go thru. And because of that my thoughts and prayers are with your family. During this extremely difficult time, please turn to God for much needed comfort and support. He will give your family the needed strength in order to help you to endure this great lost. (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) Something else that can bring your family comfort is cherishing all the wonderful memories that you have of Mr. Raymond. These precious memories will console the family in the day's ahead.”

LaToya Johnson - April 24, 2016 at 03:31 AM