“ Where do I even start with the memories! To my past "step brother", It has been some years but as we all know that length of time is just a number. I do think of you all from time to time and am sending my love and sincere condolences. I think back at your little red house across from our little brown house and it brings back such fond memories. We all grew up together. The Maine vacations will always stick out in my mind. Todd and I had such fun (and trouble fun too!!!!) Todd, you will be missed and I wish I had the opportunity to see and talk to you in our adult lives. I was in Dallas some years ago and looked up Todd's number. I think it must have been him (not sure) but left a message to say I was in town. It was the only Todd McDonald in the book. I will keep all those old memories close to my heart. Rest in peace my dear step brother. Love to all of you. Wish I could come to the service but it is not possible. I will be thinking of you all on the 23rd.
